

Launch Another Year for Crippled Children

Ready for Work Ahead

Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital, installed its new officers and welcomed 11 new provisionals to its ranks at a luncheon meeting Thursday at the Lobster House. Mrs. David Congleton, retiring president, reported that during her year the auxiliary had contributed approximately $7,000 towards its pledge to furnish a six-crib ward at the hospital. The 1966 leader of the group was presented with a silver bowl in appreciation. The new board, assuming its duties for the coming year, were, pictured at right, seated, from left, Mmes. George T. Savage, president, and Edward Sokolski,

Torrance Hospital Auxiliary

Presents Valentine Ball

Highlighting the mid-winter social season will be the 16th annual Valentine Ball presented by the Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

The Airport Marina Hotel will be the setting for the gala affair to be held Saturday, Feb. 11. A cocktail hour will begin at 7 p.m. to be followed by dinner at 8:30 p.m. The Frank Marocco orchestra will furnish music for dancing until 1 a.m.

An elaborate "hearts and flowers" theme will be used in decorating by Mrs. Harvey L. Rushfeld, chairman, and her committee.

Mrs. John J. Rice is serving as general chairman of the Valentine Ball. Several door prizes will be awarded during the evening under the direction of Mrs. Frank Bashor and Mrs. Harvel Gutfenfelder.

Auxiliary members will turn in their guest lists for the event and Mrs. John Phillips, ticket chairman, will then issue invitations. All doctors practicing at the Torrance Memorial Hospital will receive invitations.

Mrs. Clyde Anderson is handling publicity for the event and Mrs. James E. Kimble is president of the Hospital Auxiliary.

Choose British Boxing Day for Entertaining

Following a centuries old English tradition, on British Boxing Day, the day after Christmas, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Percy entertained at their home 1230 Engracia from 4 until 6 p.m.

Since Christmas in England is reserved for families, it is the day after Christmas that Britishers call on friends and deliver their boxes. Guests calling enjoy the Wassail bowl and holiday treats.

Fourteen longtime friends were invited by the Percys to enjoy their annual "British Boxing Day" party.

A holiday punch was served from a festive table on which were trays of food, including British spiced beef made by Mrs. Percy.

GETTING THE INVITATIONS OUT

When there is a party, especially a Valentine Ball, there is lots of work and these members of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary are topping the first hurdle, getting out the invitations. The huge stack of mail, ready to go, proves why the group on the couch kicked off shoes and settled down for a rest. They are, from left, Mmes. Howard Walker, Clyde An-

Triple T Club Dance Jan. 14 To Open Year

Triple T Dance Club will hold its first dance of the new year on Jan. 14 at the Queen's Kitchen in downtown Torrance.

Hosting the cocktail party from 8 to 9:30 p.m. will be charter members, Messrs. and Mmes. Baker Smith, Dean Sears, A. F. R. Ewalt, and James Stavert.

Les Tronziers and his band will furnish music for dancing to begin at 9:30 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m.

On the committee for the dance are Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Rojo, Larry Bowman and John Oursler.

IT'S A LIGHT AND AIRY COMEDY

Anticipating their benefit theater party set for Sunday evening these Las Colinas Garden Club members visit the stage at the Chapel Theater where they will see the production "Any Wednesday." They are, from left, Mrs. O. J. Vogl, a past president of Las Colinas who is directing the production; Mrs. Ernest Jacobs, club treasurer; and Mrs. J. Douglas Adams, vice president. Money raised will be used for civic beautification. (Press-Herald Photo)

Garden Club Sponsors

Benefit Theater Party

An evening of theater will be enjoyed by Los Colinas Garden Club members and their guests when they assemble at the Chapel Theater, 4164 Pacific Coast Highway in Torrance Sunday evening, Jan. 15, to see the production "Any Wednesday." Curtain is at 8 p.m.

The Garden Club has reserved the entire theater for this evening's performance by the Chapel Players under the direction of Mrs. O. J. Vogl, a member of Los Colinas Garden Club and a past president, serving in 1961-62.

Mrs. Sidney Greene is serving as chairman for the theater party. On her committee are Mrs. J. Toombs and Mrs. E. S. Hogan. All club members are selling tickets.

After the performance, a "meet-the-cast" party will be held. Club members will furnish punch and bite-size refreshments.

The Theater Party is one of the Los Colinas Garden Club's money-raising events. This club devotes its efforts to civic beautification in the local area.
